The Cindy and Todd Bauchspies
Christmas Concert - 2008
Program Advertising Section

The Bauchspies Christmas concert which has consistently drawn standing-room only crowds on the first week of December, on two consecutive nights, is in its second decade. All seats are available to the general public at no charge, and are on a first-come first-served basis. As an effort to offset costs of this FREE CONCERT, we are offering ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES to business and friends of the Bauchspies who would like to get involved financially.

As many of you know, hundreds of people attend the Bauchspies Christmas Concert as an official start to their Christmas observance. The event is free, and seating is available on a first-come first-served basis. Many people arrive early to “stake out” a seat, and peruse the program containing the schedule for the evening’s festivities.

The concert includes many members of the Bauchspies and Miller families, as well as the award-winning Madrigals of the Annapolis Area Christian School (AACS). Dozens of people are involved with the musical performance itself, and roughly two thousand attend the shows on an annual basis.
